

Wheel of Roles

Roles are on a spectrum. Your interest in Sadism/Masochism (pain) goes from the lighter/inner colors= no interest in pain to the darker/outer edges=heavy interest in pain. Depending on your interest in pain, you will place your role title (list below) around the wheel. See example below.

Dominant/Dominatrix– Partner to a submissive that enforces rules and takes a dominant role in the relationship.

Sub/Submissive–Obeys rules negotiated with their Dom/Domme, terms can be adjusted according to either partner's needs.

Master/Mistress– Dominant partner to a slave. Usually has complete control over the slave's daily activities and/or certain aspects of their day.

Slave– I always think of a slave as the extreme submissive. They generally have a negotiated contract beforehand but the terms are not adjusted unless there is an extreme circumstance (sickness, pregnancy, etc).

Switch– A player that switches between dominant and submissive roles depending on the chemistry with their partner.

Top– Partner who takes the dominant role in a scene (sometimes referred to as topping)

Bottom– Partner who takes the submissive role in a scene referred to as bottoming)

Daddy/Mommy– Sometimes called the "Gentle Dom", cares for a Little in parental manner.

Little– A partner who has child-like tendencies or role in the relationship. Littles can also be broken down into Babygirls/boys, Littles and Middles depending on their Little space "age".

Sissy– A man who desires forced feminism.

Cuckold– A man who desires to see his partner with another partner, usually a cuckold is also in chastity and may include some form of humiliation.

Cuckquean–Women's version of the cuckold. A woman who enjoys watching her partner with others.

Pet–A submissive or slave who takes an animal role (pony, dog, cat, etc)

Mentor– An experienced member of the community who offers his/her knowledge to beginners, generally outside of a relationship and without any sexual encounters. This can be a hands-on or hands-off experience.

Rope Bunny– Someone who particularly likes to be bottom for rope bondage scenes.

Rigger– Someone who particularly likes to Top for rope bondage scenes (tie someone up)
